TOWN COUNCIL.

The town council met on Wednesday evening, present the mayor and Councillors Brown, Morris, Blouey, Henry and Goodridge.

A communication was read from Mr. C. de W. MacDonald re a drain dug by Mr. Gallagher along a public street, which drain Mr. MacDonald claimed had flooded his lot, and asked to have the same filled in or the water drained from his premises. The matter was referred to the board of works.

Willis Chipman wrote the council saying he could not come to Edmonton to investigate the waterworks question before August 14th or 19th, and preferred to wait till September. On motion it was resolved to wire Mr. Chipman to come during August. Mr. Speakman also wrote on the subject of waterworks again offering his services as engineer. The secretary was instructed to advise Mr. Speakman of the foregoing resolution.

A letter from Mr. W. J. Webster, of Westport, Ont., was read, saying he would not be able to leave for Edmonton on July 23rd, as expected owing to an accident. The terms offered by the council were most satisfactory to him. The letter was filed, and the secretary instructed to give Mr. Webster some information asked as to the amount of wool to turn.

A letter from J. F. Morrell was read offering to divide with the town the difference between his asking price and the council's tender, for the lot held by him in the market block and saying he would take $700 for the lot with permission to remove buildings. Moved by Councillors Henry and Brown that the council would not entertain Mr. Morrell's offer but abide by their previous offer of $600. After some discussion as to the technicalities and probable cost of expropriation proceedings an amendment was moved by Councillors Morris and Goodridge that Mr. Morrell's price of $700 be paid and the matter settled. The amendment carried.

Pound-keeper Armstrong addressed the council on the matter of the pound, presenting his pound books for examination and tendering his resignation on the ground that the chairman of the hall and market committee had worked against him by reporting that the pound by-law was with good will liked. Councillor Brown denied the report and explained that he was having been informed by the requestor the keeper to properly feed and water the cows, he being willing to pay for the same. After a short discussion the matter was dropped. Mr. Armstrong withdrawing his resignation.

The license and police committee reported re the alleged irregularities in police affairs. The committee had investigated the charges against A. E. Patterson and the general conduct of police affairs as follows:

Gentlemen: Your committee on license and police beg to report respecting the charges against A. E. Patterson and the general conduct of police affairs as follows:

That the committee have not been satisfied on such evidence as has been laid before them, of the truth of any of the charges against Patterson though there appear to be strong grounds for suspecting irregularities on his part but under the circumstances the committee do not feel justified in recommending his dismissal from the force.

The committee, however, recommends that a by-law be at once passed on the lines suggested in Mr. Beck's letter to the committee.

That both the constables be placed on an equal footing as to duties and salaries and that the salary of each be $60.00 per month, including the duties of each as license inspector; engagements to be made expressly at the pleasure of the council. That if they decline to continue in office on these terms they, or either of them be discharged on a month's notice.

Also that he solicitor be instructed to arrange for an application being made to the legislature for the amendment of the Territorial Act so that the constable's fees may be paid to the town.

Respectively submitted,
J. T. BLOWEY.

The report was adopted. Councillor Brown at his request being recorded as dissenting from the adoption.

Tenders from Ross and J. A. Stovel were received for repairs and pointing of the fire hall and left in the hands of the board of works with power to act.

ON SHEEP RAISING.

A request from a correspondent on the sheep raising industry has induced me to write on this important question.

A woolen mill is shortly to be built and operated in the town of Edmonton, and no doubt will do much to stimulate the farmers of this district to go in more for sheep raising.

The Edmonton district is well adapted for sheep raising, being very free from spear grass, and epidemic disease. Sheep are among the most profitable animals kept on the farm. They multiply rapidly, and produce profit in two directions—wool and lambs. Sheep do not require warm expensive stables like any other kind of stock; a shed is all that is required to keep off snow and storm. They winter well on straw and chaff with one feed per day of seeds and small grain, or percentages. They are the only animals that will eat seeds and do their own grinding so effectively that none will ever germinate.

If farmers would divide their land into two fields which they intend to farm, and only crop one field each year turning sheep and other stock on the other half, weeds would be less and better crops would be raised with less land under cultivation and much hard work for man and beast saved as well as money.

On many farms while the farmer is battling with the weeds in the fields, enough are growing in the fence corners to feed a whole farm. Turn in the sheep and they will clean off everything within their reach. The fence corner is the home of the weed.

Weed inspectors will never be able to compel farmers to keep down noxious weeds as well as on the farms. The government inspectors would only try sheep for test, as above indicated they would demonstrate to the world the only practical and easy way of getting rid of weeds and weed inspectors.

to the secretary-treasurer, council, or any committee, whenever requested.

(c) I think that a discretion might be given to the treasurer and the constable on duty jointly to allow any prisoner, charged with any breach of a town by-law, his liberty on his written undertaking to appear at the next sitting of the police magistrate to answer any charge against him.

(d) The hours of service of each constable and any alternation of times of duties, with their respective duties, coming on and going off duty should be detailed.

(e) They should also be declared to be subject to such orders as may be given to them by the mayor or the chairman of the license and police committee.

Yours truly,
N. D. BECK.

Based on the evidence and this communication from Mr. Beck the committee reported:

The Mayor and Council,
Town of Edmonton.

On many farms while the farmer is battling with the weeds in the fields, enough are growing in the fence corners to feed a whole farm. Turn in the sheep and they will clean off everything within their reach. The fence corner is the home of the weed.

Weed inspectors will never be able to compel farmers to keep down noxious weeds as well as on the farms. The government inspectors would only try sheep for test, as above indicated they would demonstrate to the world the only practical and easy way of getting rid of weeds and weed inspectors.

A great cry is being raised all over that the yield of grain of old land is decreasing every year, and that our farms are getting run down so that grain raising is no longer a profitable business in many localities. Many plans have been devised for keeping up the fertility of the soil. Some recommend summer fallowing, some manuring and some seeding down. Manure is all right as far as it goes, but the quantity is limited, no farmer can get enough manure to spread over what land he farms every year. Summer fallowing is all right, but it is undesirable to disperse the soil, as at any time, i. e., it need not expire (like a note) to determine a tenancy at the end of a current month of the hiring.

(6) Irrespective of any action the town may take to remove one or both of the present constables it would suggest that the terms of engagement and the duties of the constables should be declared by by-law some of the points of which should be as follows—

(a) Term of engagement and conditions of discharge.

(b) Each constable and the "turnkey" to keep a book—the property of the town—in which a record of all arrests, the names of the constables making the arrests, charges, commitments and discharge of prisoners, with dates, should be noted; the book of the turnkey to be submitted each morning to the police magistrate, and all books to the chairman of the license and police committee once a week, and

This would have been a sad loss to the musical world.

"When music first on earth was heard
In Gode's accents deep,
That was his sister's voice."
The bleeder of a sheep."

At the present time wolves are the greatest hindrance to sheep as well as poultry raising, both of which are profitable industries at present. If a few good hounds were kept in every township coyotes would soon be exterminated.

BEAVER HILLS.

Rev. G. Vetter will preach in the Port on Sunday next.

Miss Jane Little, of Fort Saskatchewan, has just spent a few days in the neighborhood.

W. J. Hobbs, spent a few days in the neighborhood or his road to his future school at Victoria.

The new Methodist pastor, Rev. Mr. Aldridge is expected to arrive on this field in the course of a week or two.

The German Sunday school which has been in the course of erection is almost complete and will soon be ready for service.

Many of our citizens attended the Edmonton fair and though many weathered it well, yet a very enjoyable time was spent.

The bridges on our creek are in a very hazardous condition owing to the rise in the creek resulting from the recent torments of rains.

A small party of friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hare on Monday, the 14th inst., to celebrate the birthday of their daughter Lillian. The afternoon was spent very enjoyably in singing and games after which all partook of a well-filled table which had been spread in the grove adjoining the house. All the party joined in their well wishes to Lillian and for many happy returns of the day.

On June 26th a picnic was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hare, of Partridge Hill. It took the form of a farewell for our pastor, Rev. C. S. Laidman, who is about to leave, having been transferred at the last conference. During the afternoon an address was given by our high regard for and our sorrow at the departure of our pastor. He was then presented with a purse containing about $40. Mr. Laidman then made a very appreciative reply saying though he might never meet us all on earth again he hoped to see us all in heaven. July 20, 1901.

STONY PLAIN.

J. H. Buckman is visiting friends on the Plain.

Hugh McLean is the proud father of a bouncing baby boy.

Miss Kelly, of Dakota, is at present spending her holidays with her mother, Mrs. McMillan.

Phillip Miller is at present in Edmonton constructing a straw blower for his threshing outfit.

Crops in this locality are somewhat backward on account of the wet weather. Considerable damage was done by the recent hail storms, but we hope the worst is past.

A dance was held at Mr. Jos. Hosslyn's on Friday evening, July 26th. In spite of the bad weather a quite large number attended and enjoyed a very pleasant time.

A football team has been organized on the Plain and practice is being held between showers. We advise the Edmonton boys to be on their guard against the rising combatants. July 30th, 1901.

Twelve Million in Force.

The Great West Life Assurance Company, since its inception, purchased a most conservative course with regard to its Reserve, realizing the importance of fully safeguarding the integrity of its funds and making provision that affords undoubted security for carrying out all contracts made by the company. For years ago was the only Canadian Company adopting the stricter standard.

That the course was wisely directed is evidenced by the fact that the Canadian Government has, since last January, 1900, required from all Companies a higher standard of Reserve, thus endorsing the sound policy of the Great West Life.

In addition to creating an ample Reserve, there are two other factors of vital importance to the policyholders, namely, the safe and the remunerative investment of the funds. That this Company can point to the fact that it does not carry one dollar's worth of property under fire, and that its investments are all in closed mortgages, is sufficient to show to the manner in which its funds have been handled. While it has been able to earn a higher rate of interest than any other Company, it has also been able to pay the best rates of interest to its policyholders, and proving it worthy of the recommendation of its friends.

The great western country of Canada is acknowledged by all to be the most favorable field for the investment of money. The company has a long and experienced knowledge of the country. This fact is fortunate in having on its Board of Directors many of the leading, and most experienced and successful investors of capital in the West.

The fact that the Great West Life Assurance Co. earns two per cent. more interest on its funds than any other Company doing business in Canada explains why it can, at the same time, charge a lower premium and return a larger dividend, a greater dividend than that of its competitors.
